Dear Sir,

In follow-up to our telephone conversation and receipt of letter from you, further information was requested from our Chicago District Office of the Food and Drug Administration.

Our Chicago District advised that we were contacted by Inspector Sherman relative to our investigation of L. Ron Hubbard, Founding Church of Scientology and the Hubbard B-Rater. The headquarters of the Church of Scientology is in Washington, D. C. and there is or at least there was a branch group in Detroit.

furnished Inspector Sherman data and printed matter bearing on the labeling of the Hubbard B-Rater, as well as background of each of the alleged ministers operating in the field of Scientology.

feels she has a grievance against Hubbard for the kind of people representing his organization and because she feels he has strayed from his original principles of treating psychosomatic ailments.

you are aware that PMA has successfully seized the Hubbard Letters and is interested in knowing if the states are able to take legal action against persons practicing psychology without a license.

~~I have this information is helpful in replying to~~
letter.

Sincerely yours,

A. J. Beebe

Dear Mr. Rodowski:

Re: Mrs. John A. (Pearl) Harlan

Chicago, Illinois 60643

In follow-up to our telephone conversation and receipt of Mrs. Harlan's letter from you, further information was requested from our Chicago District Office of the Food and Drug Administration.

Our Chicago District advised that Mrs. Harlan was contacted by Inspector Sherman relative to our investigation of L. Ron Hubbard, Founding Church of Scientology and the Hubbard B-Sector. The headquarters of the Church of Scientology is in Washington, D. C. and there is or at least there was a branch group in Detroit.

Mrs. Harlan furnished Inspector Sherman data and printed matter bearing on the labeling of the Hubbard B-Sector, as well as (criminal) background of some of the alleged ministers operating in the field of Scientology. Apparently she had an unfortunate experience with one of these ministers, Ray Justin, who lived in her home for months before she could get rid of him. This was after eventually learning that he was an escapee from St. Elizabeths Hospital (for the insane) in Washington, D. C. where he had been incarcerated for his second sexual assault case on minors.

Mrs. Harlan feels she has a grievance against Hubbard for the kind of people representing his organization and because she feels he has strayed from his original principles of treating psychosomatic ailments.
